

Bathurst U3A Newsletter

Term 1, 2018: Monday, February 5 - Friday, March 30

Message from the President

All the U3A classes offer the opportunity for friendship and socialising, and this is a very significant aspect of U3A. With forty courses on offer there is something for everyone. Of course, U3A would not function without the wonderful contribution of our volunteer facilitators who donate their time and expertise to make the classes happen. Venue providers are also an essential element in the mix, and U3A committee members and participants are grateful to our tutors and venue providers for their wonderful contribution to U3A.

Special thanks to Sue Lasky our past Secretary, having left Bathurst. Irene Hancock has taken her place; so welcome to Irene.

Thanks to all committee members who have made 2017 a success.

Epilogue

A backward poet writes inverse.
A man's home is his castle, in a manor of speaking.
Practice safe eating - always use condiments.
Shotgun wedding: A case of wife or death.
A man needs a mistress just to break the monogamy.
A hangover is the wrath of grapes.
Dancing cheek to cheek is really a form of floor play.
Sea captains don't like crew cuts.
Does the name Pavlov ring a bell?
Condoms should be used on every conceivable occasion.
Reading while sunbathing makes you well red.
When two egotists meet, it's an I for an I.
A bicycle can't stand on its own because it is two tired.
What's the definition of a will? (It's a dead giveaway.)
Time flies like an arrow. Fruit flies like a banana.
In democracy your vote counts. In feudalism your count votes.
She was engaged to a boyfriend with a wooden leg, but broke it off.
A chicken crossing the road is poultry in motion.
If you don't pay your exorcist, you get repossessed.
